Item	Action Point
1. Chair's opening remarks: Everyone was welcomed to the meeting
2. Apologies: Cllr Maggie Taylor
3. Approval of minutes 3.05.11 Proposed as accurate by TG, seconded by MS.
4. RAF issues: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a) Planning for the Air Show (10.9.11) continues. Tickets are now on sale.</li> <li>b) Positive development of the Typhoon continues.</li> <li>c) Citizens Advice Bureau service: presently uptake is poor. The situation is being monitored. Information about the service to be put on the CC website and noticeboard.</li> <li>d) School activities day was successful. Another day is being organised for September for those schools that missed the recent event.</li> <li>e) Dog waste disposal: Beaufort Crescent residents have had a Council sticker on their blue bins to the effect that dog waste should not be put in the bins. It was thought that waste could go into 'normal' bins as long as it is bagged. Cllr Brett to check and report back to SM.</li> </ul>	TB
5. Police Issues: Nothing to report.
6. Residents Action Force (RAF): Announcement expected by 17 July 2011.
7. Matters arising: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Meadow Road: double yellow lines have been painted.</li> <li>b. Bus shelters: needed in Main St at Fern Place and on opposite side of the road. Cllr Brett to check on whether this has been requested.</li> <li>c. Feature Wall: signs are to be removed.</li> <li>d. Hanging baskets and lock up garage: It was agreed to pay £70 for the Council to put up the hanging baskets on the lamp posts in Station Road. JF will be getting an electric pump for the bowser. It was agreed those shops the CC has provided hanging baskets for should be asked for a donation if they would prefer the CC to water and maintain.</li> <li>e. Adverts on website: TG has written to advertisers on the website advising them of a charge of £30 pa for advertising.</li> <li>f. Overgrown land Station Road: MS has asked the Council for litter</li> </ul>	TB TG
